form the support of anchorage of our religion. Its eternal, unimpeachalile truth finds its verification and its power of conviction in the harmonlous conformity with the truth written by the finger of God in mature and in the history of mankind. Great was the out miracle, when the Lord revealed Himself to Israel on Mount Sinas amids fire, amoke and lightning, and by this revelation diffused light and filled the hearts with solvation and happiness. Greater I call the everlasting and everactive miracle, when now the Lord speaks to all mankind and reveals Himself to the whole world in the lightning of the telegraph and in the smoke of steam vehicles, accomplishing thereby not less but perhaps more general brotherhood and union among the children of the whole earth. This would rail revealation of God, however, which has been made in our time amidst fire, smoke and lightning, which gradually will unite the nations of the whole earth in one family, and by which their spiritual as well as their industrial interests will be more and more interwoven, is a cuarantee to us of the time, which lexish in one family, and by which their spiritual as well as their industrial interests will be more and more interwoven, is a guarantee to us of the time, which Isaiah and Michah have already propletically seen and proclaimed, when the nationshall beat their swords into plow-shares and their spears into pruning hooks, nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. And the words of the proplet leash will be fulfilled: "And unany people shall go and say, come ye and let us go up to the monntain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob, and He will walk in His paths."

Then will the prophetic word be realized, with which the Israelite, from times immemorial in his Synagogues, hopefully concluded his morning and his evening praver: "And the Lord shall be King over all the earth; in that day shall there be one Lord and His name One!"

O Israel, the Lord, our God, is one Lord!" so will all the children of mer sooner or later, call unto us, "Hear ye, O Israel, the Lord is also our God; He is one Lord!" And, therefore, I may exclaim from the depths of my heart, with Solomon, who consecrated the first tomple: But also the stranger, who is not of Thy people Israel, when he shall come and pray at this house, mayest Thou listen in Heaven, the place of Thy dwelling, and do according to all that the stranger will call on Thee for, in order that all the nations of the earth may know Thy name and fear Thee, as do Thy people Israel, and that they may maderstand that this house, which I have built, is called by Thy name, Yes, these doors are open to all, of whatever belief—to you who are heavily oppressed by the lauriens of life, who want consolation and who are sore with suffering.
